

Watercolour gallery (Anti-clockwise)

Rainbow Art

Inspired by the wonderful 'rainbows of hope' our community were creating, we decided to contribute our own rainbow-themed tribute to our NHS heroes.

Every week throughout lockdown, we shared an image of an artwork from the Worcester City Collection on our social media pages - each representing a different colour of the rainbow.

It is a pleasure to be able to display our full rainbow of artworks for you now that we're open again.

Thank you to our NHS and key workers.

Patrick Hughes

Wet Rainbow, 1979

Screenprint

Worcester City Collection

James Clarke Hook (1819-1907)

Pluming the Helmet

Oil on panel

Worcester City
Collection

To find out more about this painting search
'Pluming' at:

www.researchworcestershire.wordpress.com

or follow this link:

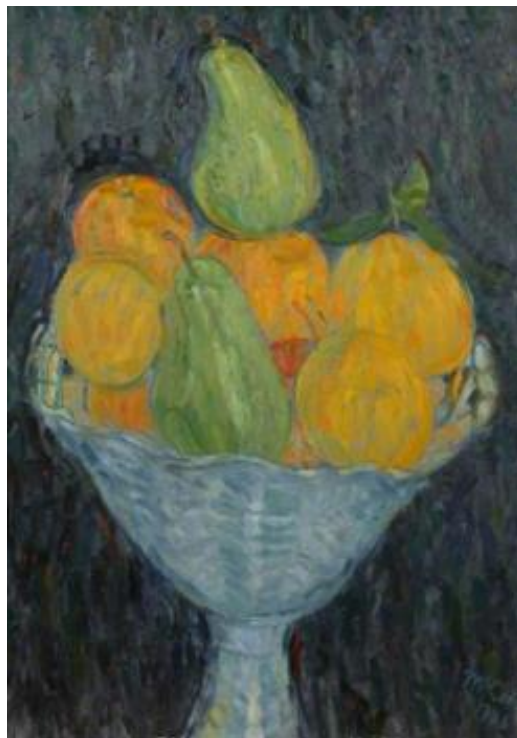

<https://researchworcestershire.wordpress.com/2019/01/18/pluming-the-helmet-about-1840-by-james-clarke-hook/>

Leonard McComb

Pears and Oranges, Cyprus, 1986

Oil on canvas

Worcester City Collection

John Harris the Younger (1720-1755)

Prospect of Worcester, c.1750

Oil on canvas, laid on board

Worcester City Collection

To find out more about this painting search
'Prospect' at:

www.researchworcestershire.wordpress.com

or follow this link:

<https://researchworcestershire.wordpress.com/2010/12/31/a-prospect-of-worcester-the-redhouse-and-the-browning-family/>

Benjamin Williams Leader

Quiet Valley Among the Welsh Hills, 1860

Oil on canvas

Worcester City
Collection

Victor Hume Moody

Untitled Portrait of a Lady, 1962

Oil on canvas

Worcester City
Collection

Charlotte Hodder

Irises, 1882

Oil on canvas

Worcester City
Collection

Barbara Mary Russon (1930-2007)

Blossom Time among the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal

Oil on canvas

Worcester City Collection

Gillian Ayres

Sikar II, 1993

Worcester City Collection

To find out more about this painting search
'Sikar' at:

www.researchworcestershire.wordpress.com

or follow this link:

<https://researchworcestershire.wordpress.com/2017/11/17/sikar-ii-by-gillian-ayres/>