

My visit to The Commandery Gardens

For the Family Fun Fitness trail!

This is the path to the garden.

This is where you
will enter the garden.

When you enter the gardens, you will need to turn left.

Follow the trail
around the garden.
This is what one of the activities will look like.

This is where you
will enter the herb
garden.

The trail continues in here, for this one you need to stomp like an elephant!

Continue following
the trail around the
herb garden.

Exit the herb garden
through here.

Turn left and follow
the trail around the
garden.

Keep following the
trail around here.
You're nearly at the end!

You've finished the trail!

Don't forget to get a picture here before you leave to show you've finished the Family Fun Fitness trail.
