WELCOME TO THE COMMANDERY

OVER 1000 YEARS OF HISTORY IN THE HEART OF WORCESTER

Explore this beautiful Grade I listed building most famous for being the Royalist Headquarters during the deciding battle of the English Civil War – the Battle of Worcester 1651. Uncover centuries of stories through interactive exhibitions and fascinating objects.

- ◆ Encounter the history of the Battle of Worcester HQ in the Civil War Story exhibition
- ◆ Experience what life would have been like during the Georgian era
- ◆ Step into the magnificent medieval Painted Chamber
- ◆ Discover fascinating characters such as the future US Presidents John Adams and Thomas Jefferson and the Duke of Hamilton

EXHIBITIONS

CIVIL WAR STORY

Discover Worcester's Civil War Story, an interactive exhibition that will take you back over 350 years into a murky, conflicted 17th century Worcester. Experience life as a soldier 300 miles from home, uncover the secrets of battle strategy and come face-to-face with Oliver Cromwell.

THE GEORGIANS – THE PRIDE AND THE PREJUDICE

A new permanent display at The Commandery. Delve into the age of the Georgians, explore the characters and stories of the era, see rarely-displayed artwork and beautiful Georgian costume.

FAMILY FUN!

There are always opportunities to get hands-on with history at The Commandery. Get stuck into the dressing-up room and become a historic character such as a gorgeous Georgian or a scruffy Civil War soldier. Have a go at writing your name in braille, typing a letter on a typewriter or creating your own stained-glass window.

Get some fresh air and let off steam in the garden's Nature Play Area including the messy mud kitchen or visit during the holidays to take part in a host of terrific trails and sensory activities.
