

Jump into Japan

HOW WELL DO YOU KNOW JAPAN?

Find out if you're an expert with our fun, fiendish quiz. Look for 8 anime characters hiding in the Museum each one holds the answer to a question on your sheet. Match the number on your activity sheet to the character and question then write in your answer.

How many Islands is Japan made up of?

2

What is an animated film or television show called in Japan? Its called _____

3

In Japan there are more _____ than children. What could it be?

4

In Japan prints are called Ukiyo e. What does Ukiyo e mean?

Ukiyo e means 'Picture of the _____ world.'

Why not think of a name for each character,
keep going theres 4 more to do....

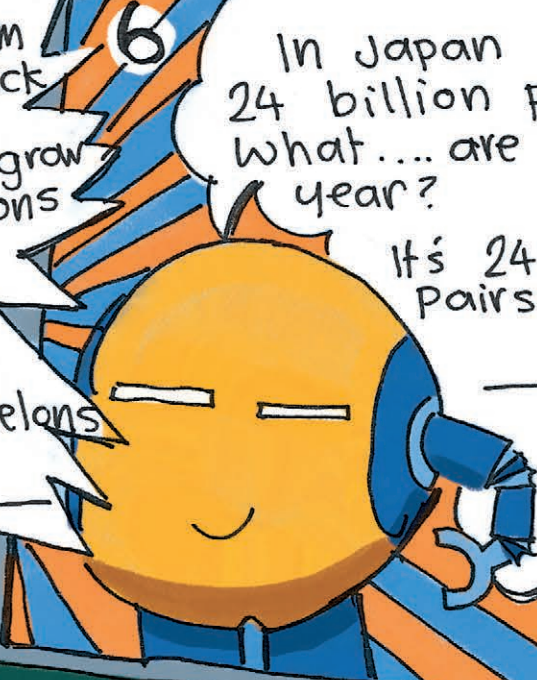

5

To make them
easier to stack
Japanese
farmers grow
watermelons
In what shape?

the watermelons
are

6

In Japan around 24 billion pairs of
what... are used each
year?

It's 24 billion
pairs of 7

Slurping your noodles whilst eating shows that
you enjoy your food
What else does it do?

It _____
your noodles
ready to eat

8

Geisha means person of the arts but what was special about the first Geisha?

The first Geisha
were actually

Subarashi !! It means Well done!
the Art Gallery for you staff have a small gift
for you for all your hard work.